Dear Dr. H. Holland:

It is a pleasure to acknowledge formal accreditation of your facility by AABB. Your quality and operational systems have been assessed and determined to meet or exceed the rigorous requirements set by the association. Specifically, accreditation is extended to your facility for the performance of the following activities:

Donor Center Activities
Cell Therapy Activity: HPC – Collection, Processing, Storage, and Distribution

A letter of accreditation and a certificate have been sent under separate cover to the individual designated as your facility's accreditation information contact. We hope you will display this award in a prominent place as evidence of your commitment to attaining the highest standards of quality.

Please extend my most sincere congratulations to your staff and your governing board.

Sincerely,

Dear Carrie Cox:

It is a pleasure to acknowledge formal accreditation of your facility by AABB. Your facility's quality and operational systems have been assessed and determined to meet or exceed the rigorous requirements determined by AABB's Standards Committees.

Specifically, AABB accreditation is extended to your facility for the performance of the following activities as assessed under the 33rd edition of the Standards for Blood Banks and Transfusion Services and the 10th edition of the Standards for Cellular Therapy Services:

Donor Center Activities
Cell Therapy Activity: HPC – Collection, Processing, Storage, and Distribution

This letter of accreditation and the enclosed certificate are your official record of this action. We hope you will display this award in a prominent place as evidence of your commitment to attaining the highest standards of quality. Your accreditation will expire on March 31, 2025.

Please extend my most sincere congratulations on behalf of AABB to your staff and your governing board.

Sincerely,
